Explore ornaments, décor, and holiday treasures. Enjoy free time at The Island in Pigeon Forge. Explore shops, attractions, and grab lunch on your own. Then, step aboard history at the Titanic Museum. Explore the Grand Staircase, touch 28-degree water, and see authentic artifacts. End the day with a first-class dinner (Pre-Paid) at Titanic. Enjoy a "secret dinner party." These under-the-radar events are held right on the ship and include a gourmet meal fit for first class passengers. The Titanic Museum's Secret Dining Room. Unbeknownst to most visitors, the Titanic Museum Attraction features a secret dining room. When you attend an event at the Titanic Museum, this dining room will be decked out with elegant Edwardian-style decorations, such as lavish floral arrangements, romantic candelabras, and pristine linen tablecloths. Your servers will even dress in the iconic blue and yellow uniforms worn by crew members on the RMS Titanic. With this authentic atmosphere, guests will really feel like they are aboard the world-famous ocean liner! The Titanic Museum does not have an onsite restaurant, so meals are provided by a local catering company. The food served at the Titanic is sure to be familiar, as the cuisine in 1912 was not drastically different from the meals we eat today, but it definitely has a distinct old-world charm. Enjoy a three-course meal that Rose [of the 1997 movie Titanic] would not be disappointed in. Then return to the hotel to relax after a day packed with shopping, holiday cheer, and unforgettable memories. Day 5 is all about fun, magic, and making memories in the Smoky Mountains!

Day 6: Saturday, December 5: Start the day with a hot breakfast at the hotel. We depart for Louisville, Kentucky. Stop for lunch on your own. Next, visit the Kentucky Derby Museum in Louisville. Enjoy the 18-minute film "The Greatest Race", a 30-minute historic walking tour of Churchill Downs, and a self-guided museum and gift shop visit. After the museum, arrive at the Drury Inn & Suites Indianapolis Northeast. Dinner on own at hotel. Relax and enjoy the evening at leisure after a day full of history, racing, and sightseeing!

Day 7: Sunday, December 6: Start your morning with a hot breakfast at the hotel before departing for home. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the ride as your Smoky Mountain Spectacular adventure comes to a wonderful close with LOTS of good memories and new "friends and family"! We hope you enjoyed the tour!
